

AN ORIGINAL ANIME UNIVERSE

GOD SMACK!

Where Gods Compete for Creation Itself

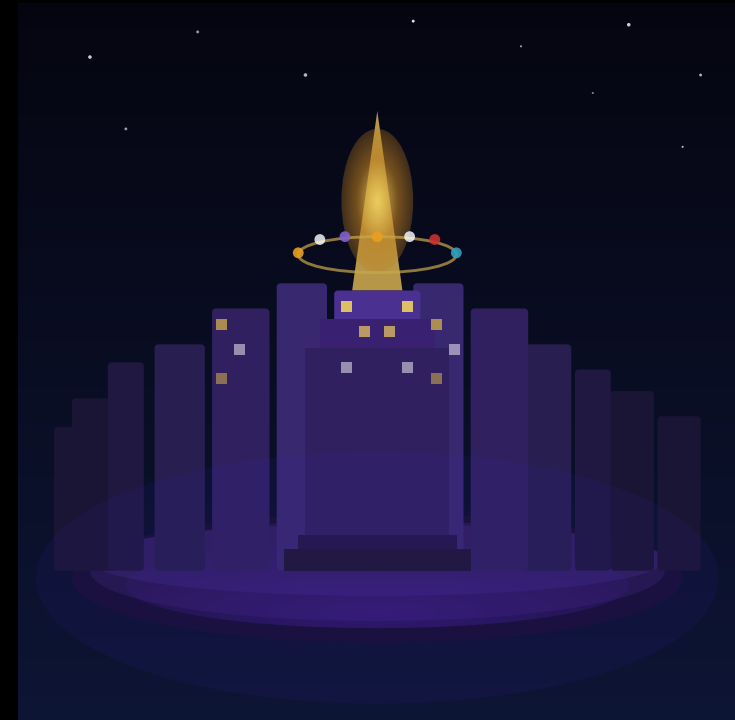

"Every god was once just a name someone whispered in the dark."

THE WORLD

Centuria

"The cosmic capital. Ancient. Ever-expanding. Built at the literal gravitational center of all known universes."

Centuria is drawn to the center of existence by millennia of collective worship — a city that pulses with Auri, the ambient energy of prayer flowing in from every inhabited world. The older the district, the more saturated with divine power it becomes. At its absolute center: the palace of the Radiant Sovereign — the God King. The most powerful being in existence. The absolute authority over all of creation.

The Rules of Rank

Rank in Centuria is not inherited — it is earned through worship. The more beings across the universe acknowledge a god's power, the higher they rise.

The Ordained carry formal titles that announce their domain to all:

"Grisembore, Ordained of Knowledge and Flight."

The Ascended run the machinery of Centuria — the laws, the schools, the roads between stars.

The Commonborn — the vast majority — can only enter the tournament every 100,000 years.

The God King Tournament

01 Enter the Tournament

Every 100,000 years. Any Commonborn god may compete. A Halo Ring appears above their head — the race begins.

02 Bead-Walk the Universes

Travel to 100 different planets. Perform deeds. Be acknowledged. Earn one worship bead per world.

03 The Ring Ignites

At 100 beads — the Halo Ring glows and spins. You are now Ordained. The universe knows your name.

04 Challenge the God King

Lose everything — beads, power, rank. In the worst cases: obliteration from existence.

The Attribute Classes

Class is not chosen — it manifests. A god's class defines how they fight, how they earn beads, and how the universe sees them.

Stormveil

Sky / Thunder / Atmosphere

Vertical fighters. Attack from above. Control pressure and lightning.

Tidesoul

Water / Ocean / Flow

Adaptive. Redirect force. Outlast everything.

Ashborn

Fire / Forge / Destruction

Pure aggression. Gods of combustion and creation both.

Rootbound

Earth / Nature / Endurance

Immovable. Draw power from terrain the longer they fight.

Loresight

Knowledge / Wisdom / Sight

Win before the fight starts. Read entire histories with a touch.

Veilwalker

Trickster / Illusion / Shadow

Never where you think. Never what they appear.

Voxborn

Sound / Music / Resonance

Weaponized frequency. Their silence is as dangerous as their voice.

Wraithcaller

Death / Ancestors / Void

Half in the afterlife always. Summon the Faded. Drain souls.

Hearthkin

Life / Healing / Fertility

Impossible to defeat by attrition. Most consistent bead earners.

Stridemark

Travel / Messenger / Speed

Fastest beings alive. Move between universes like crossing a room.

Fatewoven

Fate / Time / Probability

See probability threads. Never surprised. Banned from bead wagers.

Voidshaper

Creation / Cosmos / Void ✦ APEX

Can unmake reality. Nearly extinct. One is rumored hidden in Centuria.

Worship Beads & The Maagi-Aggi

Beads are the currency of divine power. Earned from prayer and acknowledgment across the universe — one per planet, per tournament cycle.

White Bead — Worship

Standard acknowledgment from a world. +1 toward the 100-bead threshold.

Gold Bead — Strength Attribute

Spent for power from a Maagi-Aggi. Counts as attribute, not toward threshold.

Dark Violet — Death Attribute

Necromantic power. Raises fallen warriors. Expensive.

Storm Grey — Weather Attribute

Atmospheric control. Stormveil gods covet these.

Crimson — War Attribute

Battle power. Most common attribute sought in the tournament.

The Core Tension

Every god faces the same impossible choice:

Spend beads on Maagi-Aggi attributes — become more powerful, but fall further from the 100-bead threshold.

Save beads — reach Ordained faster, but arrive underpowered.

There is no right answer. Only the choice that reflects who you are.

The Maagi-Aggi

Ancient sacred beings hidden on every planet. They predate the current cycle. Each holds a unique power — and their own test for worthiness.

Finding one is half the battle.
